STATE POLITICS.

Mass Meeting at Carlisle.

CARLISLE, Pa., October 9, 1868.

One of the largest mass meetings ever held in this place is in progress here to-day. Hon. Wm. Penn Lloyd, one of the Republicans of Cumberland have received, General Hooker, of Connecticut, and numerous other speakers are present, including Hon. Wilson A. Lyon, Esq., of Huntingdon, and Hon. E. McClay Biddle, of Harrisburg, are speaking to the crowds.

Republican Meeting at Wilmington

WILMINGTON, Del., October 9, 1868.

We had one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held in this place this evening, produced mostly by Mr. Hough, Republican candidate for Governor of this State, in connection with Hon. Wm. Penn, of this place, as candidate for Attorney General, and others, as a result of popular meetings, District Electoral, Delaware city and Newcastle, which were well received and enthusiastically cheered. Wilmington meeting will give an increased Republican majority. C.

Grand Torchlight Procession at Evansville.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., October 9, 1868.

Evansville is all on fire to-night. The largest and grandest torchlight procession ever witnessed in the northern counties is now marching through the streets. There are about two thousand torches in line, and the people are very enthusiastic. The meeting is being addressed by Gen. Thomas H. Nelson, Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, Hon. Thomas D. McGinnis, Esq., Wilson and others. W.

Democratic Ratification Meeting at Connellsville, Fayette County, Pa.

The Mass Meeting at Connellsville, Fayette county, on Thursday was, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, a most successful affair. The immense gathering from the adjacent country was addressed by Hon. Wm. McSherry, Hon. Wm. Lemke, Hon. Wm. Wilson, the new and talented Democratic candidate for Congress, and others. A large meeting of the Republicans of Connellsville was held on the same evening, but without addressing the people.

Meeting in Westmoreland.

A very large meeting was held at Greensburg, Westmoreland county, on Wednesday evening, presided over by Hugh Fuller, who made a most excellent speech. He was followed in an able manner by Hon. Wm. McSherry, Hon. Wm. Lemke, Hon. Wm. Wilson, Hon. Wm. Penn Lloyd, Hon. Wilson A. Lyon, and others.

An Early Friend of Grant for the Office.

The Report on the Camilla Riot.

Nothing Less Than a Massacre.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, October 9, 1868.

Gen. Dix and Grant.

A private letter from General John A. Dix, written from Paris nearly a year since, contains the following paragraph:

"PARIS, January 10, 1868.

"I have thought for a year that Grant should be President. The prestige of his name will enable him to do more than any other man to heal the national dissensions which seem to me at this distance to be as far from a satisfactory solution as ever. There he is honored from both parties and hands, and he has good sense, perseverance, and a modest estimate of his own capabilities. I have no doubt that he would call able men to his counsels and listen to their advice, and I believe that he would be a firm, conservative and successful Chief Magistrate."

The Camilla Massacre.

Both General Rosecrans's report on the Camilla massacre, and one from General Sibley direct to General Howard, were made public to-day. The affidavits accompanying the latter report are voluminous, and when the case are referred to in a general way in the report, it is really incomplete without them, unless the fact be borne in mind that they contain minute details of the affrays, which shows the whole effort to have been an unit directed to the Hempstead and New Orleans massacre. The following is the letter of Major General Rosecrans, General Grant, transmitting the report of Captain Noble:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH, NEW ORLEANS, LA., October 6, 1868.

SIR:—You have been appointed from observing individuals of the Republican party in the State on the 20th ult., at Camilla, in Mitchell county, I had since had things in readiness to start one each of the court additions, such as are reflected by the letters of instruction from the Lieutenant-General, of date August 25, 1866, and that at the same time I dispatched Captain Mills, a most reliable and intelligent officer, on whose good judgment and discretion I could rely, to Camilla, to investigate and report to me the facts in the case. PITTSBURGH, Saturday, October 10, 1868.

Our local money market has worked in favor of the borrowers during the past one week. The banks are accommodating their customers to the full extent of the demand, and some of them are extending their line to the relief of outside applicants.

Government bonds remain about as they were quoted yesterday. The decline in gold tends to depress the bonds, which, together with the heavy engagements in gold, will make the former desirable as a permanent investment at present quotations.

Stocks, for the most part, are quiet and market steady at full prices.

Exchange.—The market continues dull, prices remaining nominal, buyers refusing to operate except at extreme rates. There are still a few transactions to notice. The Eastern market, according to the dispatches, have undergone no change for some days. Philadelphia drafts are lower, and obtainable within the limits of commission, bank, brokerage, New York, prime bills close to 1/2c. discount and others 1/2c. premium, gold, 60 days, 1/2c. premium, sight, 1/2c. premium.

Petroleum.—The market was dull and prices lower, leaving buyers the "lions" have to advantage. The sales reported were 5,000 bbls at 20c., 1,000 bbls crude at 19c., 1,000 bbls crude at 19 1/2c., 1,000 bbls crude at 19 3/4c., 1,000 bbls crude at 20c., 1,000 bbls crude at 20 1/2c., 1,000 bbls crude at 20 3/4c., 1,000 bbls crude at 21c., 1,000 bbls crude at 21 1/2c., 1,000 bbls crude at 21 3/4c., 1,000 bbls crude at

One of the Largest Processions Ever Seen in Birmingham.

Mass Meeting in Market Square

The torchlight procession on the south side last evening was a most successful affair, and well inspired the Republican voters of the Diamond ought there with the utmost confidence in their ability to get an unusually large majority on Tuesday next.

The clubs of Birmingham, East Birmingham and Brownsdown were formed in line in the Diamond, and headed by the Birmingham Silver Cornet Band marched up to the Monongahela House, where they were met by the large force from Allegheny and Allegheny.

The procession was then formed in grand order, the delegations from the south side falling in the rear of the Pittsburgh delegations.

The Walton Hose Company No. 6, of East Birmingham, with their handsome truck, and the Fort Pitt Hose Company No. 1, of Pittsburgh, with their truck, and both companies in their handsome uniforms, were the first to move. They were followed by the Washington Band, and with each of the companies was a band of music.

The West Side Hose Company No. 1, of the Ninth Ward, Pittsburgh, with their truck, and the Fifth Ward Band, and with each of the companies was a band of music.

The Second Ward Hose Club, of the Second Ward, Pittsburgh, with their truck, and the Second Ward Band, and with each of the companies was a band of music.

Upon the procession in the Court of the Commonwealth, Lemuel Todd, Esq., presided, and introduced the following gentlemen, who addressed the meeting without manifesting any party spirit, and with the utmost harmony:

Hon. Thomas M. Marshall, Hon. Thomas Williams, Hon. Thomas Ewing, Hon. Paul Swearingen, Hon. Wilson McCandless, Hon. James L. Graham, Hon. Thomas Howe, Hon. Thomas Bakewell, Hon. Wm. Wilkins, Hon.
